

Family Advocacy and Support Service (FASS)

www.familyviolencelaw.gov.au

Tasmania (Tas)

The Family Advocacy and Support Service (FASS) provide support and legal help if you are affected by domestic and family violence and have a family law issue. We can help you if:

- you have experienced domestic and family violence or,
- someone says you have used violence.

If you are worried about your safety at court or about going to court please talk to us before your court date.

| Our lawyers can assist with: | Our support workers can: |
|---|--|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Arrangements for children• Family Violence Orders and Restraint Orders• Property after separation• Divorce• Child Support• Child protection• Applying for legal aid• Some urgent court matters | <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Help you plan for your safety• Talk to the Family Courts about your safety at court• Give you information and support during your family law case• Help with practical problems like Centrelink and housing• Advocate for you with services like police• Connect you with men's behaviour change programs or other services |

How do I get help?

You can see a lawyer or support worker at Hobart and Launceston Family Courts.

Hobart Family Courts
Level 1, 39-41 Davey Street,
Hobart

Launceston Family Courts
Corner Brisbane and George Streets,
Launceston

You can also see us at a Legal Aid office in Hobart, Launceston or Burnie. To find us, see the Legal Aid Tasmania website.

You don't need an appointment if the court is sitting (meaning when matters are listed before a Judge). On other days, call 1800 431 157 to make an appointment.

For more information, call 1800 431 157 or visit the Legal Aid Tasmania website.

