

Family Advocacy and Support Service (FASS)

www.familyviolencelaw.gov.au

Western Australia (WA)

The Family Advocacy and Support Service (FASS) provide support and legal help if you are affected by domestic and family violence and have a family law issue. We can help you if:

- you have experienced domestic and family violence or,
- someone says you have used violence.

If you are worried about your safety at court or about going to court please talk to us before your court date.

Our lawyers can assist with:	Our support workers can:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Arrangements for children</li><li>• Family Violence Restraint Orders</li><li>• Property after separation</li><li>• Divorce</li><li>• Child Support</li><li>• Child protection</li><li>• Applying for legal aid</li><li>• Some urgent court matters</li></ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Help you plan for your safety</li><li>• Talk to the Family Courts about your safety at court</li><li>• Give you information and support during your family law case</li><li>• Help with practical problems like Centrelink and housing</li><li>• Advocate for you with services like police</li><li>• Connect you with men's behaviour change programs or other services</li></ul>

How do I get help?

You can see a lawyer or support worker by going to:

Perth Family Court
150 Terrace Road, Perth

We are there Monday to Friday, 9:00am - 4:30pm. You don't need an appointment.

If you are in a regional area, you can see a lawyer or support worker in Bunbury, Albany, Broome, Geraldton and Kalgoorlie when the Family Court is there on circuit.

At other times, you can call the Infoline on 1300 650 579 or visit your local Legal Aid office. Find your local office here.

For more information, call 1300 650 579 or visit the Legal Aid WA website.

