

Family Advocacy and Support Service (FASS)

www.familyviolencelaw.gov.au

Northern Territory (NT) - Family Courts

The Family Advocacy and Support Service (FASS) provide support and legal help if you are affected by domestic and family violence and have a family law issue. We can help you if:

- you have experienced domestic and family violence or,
- someone says you have used violence.

If you are worried about your safety at court or about going to court please talk to us before your court date.

Our lawyers can assist with:	Our support workers can:
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Arrangements for children• Property after separation• Divorce• Child Support• Child Protection• Applying for legal aid• Some urgent court matters• Referrals	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Help you plan for your safety• Talk to the Family Courts about your safety at court• Give you information and support during your family law case• Help with practical problems like Centrelink and housing• Advocate for you with services like police• Connect you with counselling & men's behaviour change programs or other services

How do I get help?

You can see a lawyer or support worker by going to:

Darwin Family Courts, Level 1, Supreme Court Building, State Square, Darwin

Alice Springs Family Courts, Cnr Railway and Stott Terrace, Alice Springs

Northern Territory Legal Aid Commission

Level 5, 9 Cavenagh Street, Darwin or by telephone for all NT

For more information, call us on 1800 019 343. Visit the NT Legal Aid website.

